FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE LEGAL AID SOCIETY LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE, REDESIGNED TO BETTER SERVE CLIENTS AND VISITORS

NEW YORK, NY—The Legal Aid Society today announced the launch of a new website, www.legalaidnyc.org. The website has been redesigned to better serve Legal Aid clients, highlight the staff that make the organization's work possible, and provide information on the latest victories. The site will not only serve as an invaluable resource to the clients and communities that Legal Aid serves, but will also feature the stories of the people—staff and supporters—who commit themselves to the organization's work.

"We are thrilled to launch our new website which will help strengthen our ability to provide critical legal services to our clients and all low-income New Yorkers who are in need of representation," said Janet Sabel, CEO and Attorney-in-Chief of The Legal Aid Society. "With this new site, we are fortifying our fight for justice in every borough for decades to come."

The website will offer an enhanced user-friendly experience with improved navigation and functionality, which will help facilitate the organization's ability to provide essential legal services to New Yorkers in need of legal help. Additionally, the new site's upgraded technology will ensure that Legal Aid's mission and vision can grow and adapt to the ever-changing needs of New York City.

The Legal Aid Society exists for one simple yet powerful reason: to ensure that New Yorkers are not denied their right to equal justice because of poverty. For over 140 years, we have protected, defended, and advocated for those who have struggled in silence for far too long. Every day, in every borough, The Legal Aid Society changes the lives of our clients and helps improve our communities. https://www.legalaidnyc.org
