Video Press Conference Tuesday: NYPD Social-Distancing Enforcement Practices

New York, NY - On Tuesday, May 26, 2020, at 11:00 AM Eastern, the attorneys behind two landmark class-action lawsuits that challenged the NYPD's stop-and-frisk and trespass enforcement practices as racially discriminatory and unconstitutional (Floyd v. City of New York and Davis v. City of New York) will hold a press call on discriminatory policing practices over social distancing. The Center for Constitutional Rights, The Legal Aid Society, the NAACP Legal Defense Fund, and the law firm of Beldock, Levine, & Hoffman will be joined by members of the coalition Communities United for Police Reform. The most recent reports indicate that 81 percent of social distancing-related summonses since March 2020 have been issued to Black and Latinx people, while the vast majority of 311 complaints about social distancing violations have come from majority-white neighborhoods of the city.
