When I attempted to remove the defendant from the train, he began flailing his arms and kicking his legs, making it difficult to place him in handcuffs. The defendant stated in substance: I am not getting off the fucking train.

Police Officer Police Officer Adonis Long, Shield # 02881 of Transit Division District assisted me in removing the defendant from the train. I observed the defendant shove officer Long and I observed the two grappling on the floor as Officer Long and I attempted to place handcuffs on the defendant.

I am informed by Police Officer Long that during the above-described conduct, the defendant kicked his right hand.

I am further informed by Police Officer Long that as a result of the above-described actions of the defendant, he sustained swelling and substantial pain to the knuckles of his right hand and was transported to the hospital. He informs me that because of the swelling he is unable to open and close his hand without experiencing pain.
