

SERVANT OF JUSTICE AWARDS

Bradley I. Ruskin

A preeminent litigator and trial lawyer, Bradley I. Ruskin is a senior partner at Proskauer where he co-chairs the firm's renowned Sports Law Group and is the firm's longest-serving member on its Executive Committee. His practice has spanned a variety of high-stakes commercial cases, representing clients such as Major League Soccer, the National Football League, the National Basketball Association, ATP Tour, WTA Tour, the National Hockey League, Major League Baseball, multiple professional teams, the Big East, the PAC-12, T-Mobile, Wharton Properties, Tech Mahindra, Schein, and Madonna.

Throughout his legal career, Brad has been a passionate advocate of public service. Brad is a Director and the Audit Committee Chair for the Student Leadership Network (and recent recipient of its “The Man We Love Award”), a member of the ADL Sports Leadership Council, on the Board of Sports for Youth, and a member of the Jewish Theological Society’s Advisory Board (and recipient of its Simon Rifkind Award). In addition, Brad has taught a graduate school class at NYU's Tisch School and has testified before legislative and other bodies concerning the administration of justice and court operations in New York State.

Brad has been volunteering with The Legal Aid Society since the start of his career, successfully taking on a disability matter as a first-year associate and chairing the citywide Associates’ Campaign to raise support from all firms across the City. He currently serves on The Legal Aid Society Board of Directors, where he is an active member of the Executive Committee.
