

Lucy Fato

EVP, General Counsel &
Global Head of Communications and Government Affairs

American International
Group, Inc.

Lucy oversees AIG's Global Legal, Compliance and Regulatory groups. She is also Global Head of Communications and Government Affairs.

Prior to joining AIG, Ms. Fato was Managing Director, Head of the Americas & General Counsel of Nardello & Co., a global private investigative firm, where she remains on the Advisory Board.

Previously, Ms. Fato was EVP & General Counsel of S&P Global. Prior to that, Ms. Fato was Deputy General Counsel & Corporate Secretary at Marsh & McLennan Companies. Ms. Fato began her legal career at the law firm Davis Polk & Wardwell where she spent fourteen years, including five as a partner in the capital markets group.

From 2018 to 2021, Ms. Fato was included in NACD Directorship magazine's list of the 100 most influential people in the boardroom community. In 2015 and 2017, she was named by Ethisphere magazine as one of the "Attorneys Who Matter" for her dedication to furthering corporate ethics.