

TRAVEL AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS BY COUNTRY

Disclaimer: This advisory was prepared by The Legal Aid Society. This advisory is not legal advice, and does not substitute for the advice of an immigration expert.

This advisory is based on the following travel and other restrictions for nationals of various countries:

- June 4, 2025 Travel Ban Proclamation: Restricting the Entry of Foreign Nationals to Protect the United States from Foreign Terrorists and Other National Security and Public Safety Threats
- December 2, 2025 USCIS PM 602-0192: Hold on asylum and all other benefits applications for high-risk countries
- December 16, 2025 Travel Ban Proclamation: Restricting and Limiting the Entry of Foreign Nationals to Protect the Security of the United States
- January 1, 2026 USCIS PM-602-0194: Hold and Review of USCIS Benefit Applications Filed by Aliens from Additional High-Risk Countries
- January 8, 2026 Department of State Posting: Countries Subject to Visa Bonds
- January 16, 2026 Department of State Posting: Immigrant Visa Processing Updates for Nationalities at High Risk of Public Benefits Usage

Some of the restrictions overlap and may conflict. For instance, a travel ban may prohibit all B1/B2 visitor visas for nationals of a certain country, while Department of State guidance provides for B1/B2 bonds for the same country. Assume the most restrictive rule applies.

Some of these restrictions may be subject to litigation, which may affect whether they are in force.
